RAJYA SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on the 9th March, 1976:—

BILL No. XVIII OF 1976

A Bill to confer on the President the power of the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu to make laws.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1976. Short title.

2. In this Act, "Proclamation" means the Proclamation issued on the 31st day of January, 1976, under article 356 of the Constitution, by the President, and published with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs No. G.S.R. 55(E) of the said date. Definit. tion.

3. (1) The power of the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu to make laws, which has been declared by the Proclamation to be exercisable by or under the authority of Parliament, is hereby conferred on the President. Confer- ment on the Pres- ident

(2) In the exercise of the said power, the President may, from time to time, whether Parliament is or is not in session, enact, as a President's Act, a Bill containing such provisions as he considers necessary:

Provided that before enacting any such Act, the President shall, whenever he considers it practicable to do so, consult a Committee constituted for the purpose, consisting of forty members of the House of the People nominated by the Speaker and twenty members of the Council of States nominated by the Chairman.

Legis- lature to make laws.

(3) Every Act enacted by the President under sub-section (2) shall, as soon as may be after enactment, be laid before each House of Parliament.

(4) Either House of Parliament may, by resolution, passed within thirty days from the date on which the Act has been laid before it under sub-section (3), which period may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, direct any modifications to be made in the Act and if the modifications are agreed to by the other House of Parliament during the session in which the Act has been so laid before it or the session succeeding, such modifications shall be given effect to by the President by enacting an amending Act under sub-section (2):

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall affect the validity of the Act or of any action taken thereunder before it is so amended.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under the Proclamation issued by the President on the 31st January, 1976, the powers of the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu are now exercisable by or under the authority of Parliament. Such legislative measures as may be necessary for that State can be taken up by Parliament only by postponing its business; and even then, it is likely that Parliament may not have time to deal with all the legislative measures for the State. It is, therefore, proposed that Parliament should, in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (a) of clause (1) of article 357 of the Constitution, confer by law on the President the powers of the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu to make laws for the State. The present Bill is intended to give effect to this proposal.

K. BRAHMANANDA REDDI.

NEW DELHI;

The 4th March, 1976.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The proviso to sub-clause (2) of clause 3 of the Bill provides for the constitution of a Committee for consultation regarding President's Acts, consisting of 40 members of the House of the People and 20 members of the Council of States. Expenses to be incurred in connection with the meetings of Consultative Committee would be met from the Consolidated Fund of India. This Committee will meet as and when necessary. The expenditure is not expected to be large and is not likely to exceed Rs. 1,80,000 during the period in which the Proclamation will be in force. The Bill, if enacted, will not involve any non-recurring expenditure.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

The power of the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu to make laws which has been declared by the Proclamation issued under article 356 of the Constitution in respect of that State on the 31st day of January, 1976, to be exercisable by or under the authority of Parliament, is sought to be conferred on the President under article 357(1)(a) of the Constitution. Before exercising the aforesaid power, the President is required, whenever he considers it practicable to do so, to consult a Committee of members of Parliament constituted for the purpose in accordance with the provisions of the proviso to sub-clause (2) of clause 3. Any Act enacted by the President in exercise of the aforesaid power is required to be laid before each House of Parliament and Parliament may direct modifications to be made in the Act [vide sub-clauses (3) and (4) of clause 3]. The delegation of legislative power is in pursuance of the express provision in this behalf in article 357(1)(a) of the Constitution and is necessary as it will not be easy for Parliament to find time to deal with the various legislative measures that may be required in respect of the State of Tamil Nadu. Under the exceptional circumstances arising out of the issue of a Proclamation under article 356 of the Constitution, this delegation of legislative power is limited to the period when the aforesaid Proclamation dated the 31st of January, 1976 will continue to be in force. To the extent that it has been usual for Parliament to confer on the President such legislative powers, it can be regarded as of a normal character.

B. N. BANERJEE,
Secretary-General.
